A piece of software we allow to be downloaded along with the Sam 4.4 broadcaster so as rave-on-djs monitors can see what is happening on the young persons computer and help them with the Sam broadcaster and to make the broadcasting experience an enjoyable one.

When a Rave-on-djs monitor is monitoring a young person they will not invade or look at any files or programs that are on the young persons computer that are not on show when the broadcast begins, they will be asked to shut all programs down that are not involved in the broadcast. A young person cannot be contacted by any person other than a rave-on-djs monitoring staff and any e-mails or I M contact must be looked at after the broadcast is over.

Visual monitoring is one of the safe guards Rave-on-djs has put in place and any young person that open or look at any I M or E-mails whilst broadcasting will be given three warnings and if they continue after this they will be removed from the site.
